

I shall not be sorry to be renewed bond and to settle down to work again. I have been playing immensely

Yours very sincerely

Arbman

The Deanery of St. Pauls
London, June 2nd

Dear Mr. Watson

I must set off a letter in reply to yours of the 4th -
- for which I thank you,
- please mail enclosed to
- release. It contains
- plans of the Oxford &
- Bill. But, Eltham, that he
- wants to know whether
- triumphic or not. I
- had barely time, during
- our busy days at Oxford
- to look it up in the She-
- rardian halosium.

I send by mail a page of Times with a brief notice of the Oxford Commemoration.

and the Cambridge Publ.
Orator's Speeches. Keep the letter. I have been having - as you may imagine - a high time, and have too an an much crowded into fancies.

I have not been able to get Mr. to know yet.

I hear that only one copy of my Elements came. I expected 1 for know & 3 for sup. in sheets.

"Palmer at Grayson's" Good. Let him know that Sympetralia must be collected there!

Goodbye unto of dear old Brett.

Saturday, vol. XIII - I did not remit what you paid me for it to Wesley, thinking he owed me as much or more. Wesley's very near where I am now visiting; to-morrow morning I will see him and settle.

I have, at last moment wants to reprint my Memorial of Englishmen - which made delay, but I hope is done see this.

We are so glad your sister is getting well. Sad to hear about Baird's sickness.
Please find out how she is, and let me know.
